Glasgow Social Enterprise Network Annual Report 2017/18

FOREWORD

t has been an eventful year for GSEN and it is with pleasure that I write the foreword to our first Annual Report. During 2017, with a mandate from membership, we incorporated as a company limited by guarantee and gained charitable status, we took on the mantle of lead partner for social enterprise in the Glasgow Third Sector Interface and formed our first Board.

Our network is growing stronger with social enterprises, and those looking to develop social enterprise, joining us on a regular basis; and our strength in working in partnership with a range of organisations has enabled us to launch a variety of new products and services.

Although we are within a new era, we continue our commitment to being an inclusive and members led organisation offering a unique resource, providing leadership and delivering a robust conduit for support and representation.

We anticipate that 2018 will bring more exciting opportunities and we look forward to sharing this with you.

Betty Elliott Chair

OUR HIGHLIGHTS

ith a mandate from membership we incorporated as a company limited by guarantee in February 2017 and gained charitable status in March 2017.

In April 2017, we assumed the lead role for social enterprise within the Glasgow Third Sector Interface alongside GCVS, Volunteer Glasgow and the Glasgow Third Sector Forum.

We supported a growing network made up of:

- 123 Full Members
- 27 Start Up Members
- 31 Associate Members (individuals and organisations)

We brought together membership offering opportunities to learn, build relationships and connectivity by hosting over 8 network meetings and events. Topics included Scotland's Social Enterprise Strategy, Finance, Glasgow Championship 2018, GDPR and more.

We worked, and continue to work, with Glasgow City Council in developing the first coproduced Social Enterprise Strategy for the city.

We accepted the role as a representative on the newly formed Glasgow Partnership for Economic Growth group.

In recognising the need for digital support, we commissioned Third Sector Lab to produce an exclusive Playbook for members packed with information, hints and tips on a range of social media tools.

In partnership with School for Social Entrepreneurs Scotland we developed a bespoke pilot action learning set programme.

OUR HIGHLIGHTS

Members were provided with the opportunity to attend a range of workshops on the Be Good Be Social Programme, the Policy and Practice conference hosted by CEIS, the national conference hosted by SEN-SCOT, Innovation Masterclasses with Scottish Enterprise and sessions with the Partnership for Procurement team.

We launched our third mapping of social enterprises in Glasgow. Working in partnership with Social Value Lab the third report is invaluable to promote and showcase the social and economic contribution that social enterprises make in Glasgow.

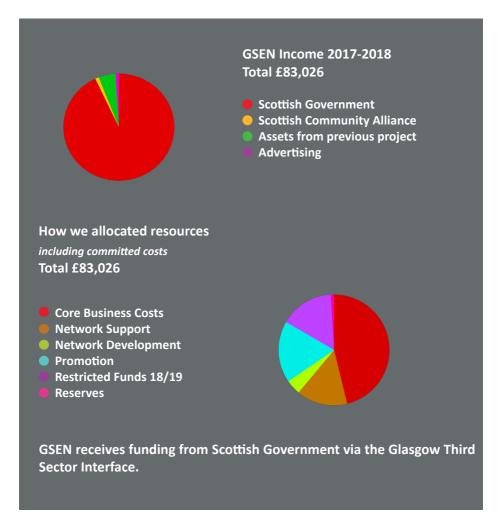

To promote our members and assist stakeholders, public and others to understand more about social enterprise we launched The Pocket Guide to Glasgow Social Enterprise Network. The guide is available in both electronic and print format.

Alongside the Health, Dundee and Edinburgh Social Enterprise Networks we committed to taking part in a pilot programme to measure and evidence the value of the social networks. The programme, U>P, delivered by Assist Social Capital provides a social capital evaluation platform which can be used for developing action plans that strengthen the impact of outcomes.

THANKS

We would like to thank all our members, funders, partners and stakeholders who have supported the GSEN board and staff throughout 2017/18. We look forward to working with everyone in 2018.
